

INTERNAL TRANSFER

1

The internal transfer option can be used to make a transfer among the accounts of a given user only in PLN currency.

If an internal transfer is needed in a foreign currency, the currency conversion form should be used.

CURRENCY CONVERSION

1

The currency conversion option is used to exchange currencies among accounts in different currencies belonging to the same customer and to rebook funds among accounts in the same currency (except PLN), among the accounts of the same customer.
